A CONCENTRATION OF CULTURE

Have you ever seen so much culture concentrated in one place? Geneva has more than 40 museums within a very small area. See the incredible Romanesque Art Exhibition of the 12th 14th century in the International Museum of the Reformation, or take a break at the iconic Marco Polo statue. Here is a list of some of the most extraordinary museums:

- International Museum of the Reformation, dedicated to the work of Henry Dunant and the origins of the Red Cross. It includes important documents and manuscripts that retrace the history of the movement.
- Red Cross and Red Crescent Museum, showing the story of the Red Cross and Red Crescent societies since 1863.
- Red Cross and Red Crescent Museum A, a collection of objects and photographs related to the history of the Red Cross and Red Crescent movement.
- Archbishop’s Palace Museum, a historical and cultural site.
- Palais des Papes, a medieval palace where the Popes resided in Geneva.
- Palais de Justice, a historical and cultural site.
- Palais des Nations, a UN building.

YOUR RECIPE FOR A GOURMET STAY

Geneva isn’t just the capital of diplomacy and high-end watchmaking, it’s also a foodie’s dream. Over 300 restaurants, 70 butcher shops, and 300 bakeries make Geneva the perfect destination for foodies.

- Armures, a restaurant where you can dine like a president.
- Mont Blanc, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Les Gourmets, a restaurant with a great selection of wines.
- La Rotonde, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Le Chapeau Rouge, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.

EXPLORE THE BIRTHPLACE OF LUXURY WATCHMAKING

If Switzerland is synonymous with watches, then Geneva is the birthplace of the watch industry. The art of luxury watchmaking was created in Geneva four centuries ago and the city is home to many of the most famous watch brands in the world. Today, you can visit the workshops and museums of these companies to learn about the history of watchmaking and the art of luxury watchmaking.

- Montblanc, a luxury watchmaker.
- Omega, a luxury watchmaker.
- Longines, a luxury watchmaker.
- Chopard, a luxury watchmaker.
- Breguet, a luxury watchmaker.

DINE LIKE A PRESIDENT

Once you’ve had your fill of luxury watches, it’s time to indulge in some luxury dining. Here are some of the most famous restaurants in Geneva:

- Armures, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- La Rotonde, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Le Chapeau Rouge, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Mont Blanc, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Le Terrasse, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.

EXPLORE THE BIRTHPLACE OF LUXURY WATCHMAKING

If Switzerland is synonymous with watches, then Geneva is the birthplace of the watch industry. The art of luxury watchmaking was created in Geneva four centuries ago and the city is home to many of the most famous watch brands in the world. Today, you can visit the workshops and museums of these companies to learn about the history of watchmaking and the art of luxury watchmaking.

- Montblanc, a luxury watchmaker.
- Omega, a luxury watchmaker.
- Longines, a luxury watchmaker.
- Chopard, a luxury watchmaker.
- Breguet, a luxury watchmaker.

FOLLOWING IN THE FOOT STEPS OF THE REFORMATION

The year 2017 marked the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation. As one of the most significant social and religious movements of modern times, the Reformation has left an indelible mark on Geneva and Switzerland. Today, you can visit the sites where this momentous event took place and learn about the people who were involved.

- Reformateurs’ House, the house where John Calvin lived.
- Bastions Park, a park where you can see the remains of the old city walls.
- Reformateurs’ Church, a church where John Calvin preached.
- Reformateurs’ Cemetery, a cemetery where many of the reformers are buried.
- Reformateurs’ Monument, a monument to the reformers.

CRUISING AT YOUR OWN PACE

Whether you’re cruising on the mighty Rhone River or simply taking a leisurely walk along the quayside, Geneva is the perfect destination for a leisurely cruise. The city is full of history and culture, and there are plenty of things to see and do.

- Rhone River Cruise, a cruise on the Rhone River.
- Jet d’Eau, a fountain that shoots water 140 meters high.
- Palais Wilson, a UN building.
- Flower Market, a market where you can see the freshest flowers in the city.
- Cathedral, a beautiful cathedral with a fantastic view of the city.

- Reformateurs’ House, the house where John Calvin lived.
- Bastions Park, a park where you can see the remains of the old city walls.
- Reformateurs’ Church, a church where John Calvin preached.
- Reformateurs’ Cemetery, a cemetery where many of the reformers are buried.
- Reformateurs’ Monument, a monument to the reformers.

EXPLORE THE BIRTHPLACE OF LUXURY WATCHMAKING

If Switzerland is synonymous with watches, then Geneva is the birthplace of the watch industry. The art of luxury watchmaking was created in Geneva four centuries ago and the city is home to many of the most famous watch brands in the world. Today, you can visit the workshops and museums of these companies to learn about the history of watchmaking and the art of luxury watchmaking.

- Montblanc, a luxury watchmaker.
- Omega, a luxury watchmaker.
- Longines, a luxury watchmaker.
- Chopard, a luxury watchmaker.
- Breguet, a luxury watchmaker.

DINE LIKE A PRESIDENT

Once you’ve had your fill of luxury watches, it’s time to indulge in some luxury dining. Here are some of the most famous restaurants in Geneva:

- Armures, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- La Rotonde, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Le Chapeau Rouge, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Mont Blanc, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.
- Le Terrasse, a restaurant with a fantastic view of the lake and the Alps.